What Are Your Risks?

Risk Management
Training:
Roots to Success

With many risks to farm or agri-business success, it can be difficult to feel properly prepared. Here's some help!

Register for the Root to Success Risk Management Workshop to explore the risks on your farm. This one-day in-person workshop will allow you to:

Gain knowledge, tools and resources to make better business

Decisions

Share best practices and lessons learned with other producers

Create a comprehensive risk management plan tailored to your farm

Build your farm resilience

Improve your relationships with buyers, lenders and insurance

Companies

Thursday, March 23 from 9:00 am until 4:30 pm at the Super 8 Hotel in Windsor.

Register here or email info@nsyoungfarmers.ca

We need twelve to twenty people for the workshop. Please register by Sunday, March 19th.

Costs are covered by AAFC through the Agri-Risk Initiatives program. Snacks, beverages and a catered lunch will be provided.

Participants also receive one-year free access to Agri-Shield, an online risk management tool, which is a $149 value!

Hosted by NS Young Farmers and open to all NS farms and agri-business.

Funding $$$ For Training

Looking for training, education or personal development opportunities?

Are you between the ages of 18 and 40?
Involved in or interested in agriculture in Nova Scotia?

Consider joining the NS Young Farmers to take advantage of opportunities like this:

The Farm & Workforce Development team of the NSFA has funding available for members of NS Young Farmers to help with the cost of Health & Safety training or Professional Development. Funding covers both in person or online training.

This could include courses in:

- Safety like First Aid or Forklift Training, or the Pesticide Applicators course and exam
- HR, Communications or Leadership
- Business, Finances or Marketing

Funds will be allocated at $200 per member until the $5000 total is spent.

With the annual membership fee for NSYF only at $30, you are already ahead!

If you have training that you would like funded, please get in touch with Margaret at info@nsyoungfarmers.ca or call 902-893-2293.
